2. Licence to use the Services

2.1 Subject to the Customer paying any applicable Subscription Fees, the Customer is granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable licence, to permit the Authorised Users to use the Services (including any associated IPRs and confidential Information of the Supplier) from the Effective Date for the Term solely for the Customer's internal business operations. Such licence permits the Customer to make cache copies of software or other information necessary for the Customer to receive the Services via the Internet. Where open-source software is used as part of the Services, such software use by the Customer will be subject to the terms of the open-source licences. No additional implied rights are granted beyond those specifically mentioned in this clause.

2.2 In relation to the Authorised Users, the Customer undertakes that:

- (a) the maximum number of Authorised Users that it authorises to access and use the Services shall not exceed the number of User Subscriptions;
- (b) the Services shall be used for the planning and delivery of the project named in the Proposal exclusively;
- (c) no User Subscription shall be used by more than one individual Authorised User unless it has been reassigned in its entirety to another individual Authorised User, in which case the prior Authorised User shall no longer have any right to access or use the Services;
- (d) each Authorised User shall keep a secure, confidential password for their use of the Services;
- (e) Authorised Users, who share email addresses shall not share logins or permit more than one Authorised User to login to use the Services via the same email;
- (f) it shall permit the Supplier to audit the Services in order to establish the name and password of each Authorised User, at the Supplier's expense, with reasonable prior notice; and
- (g) if any of the audits referred to in clause 2.2(f) reveal that any password has been provided to any individual who is not an Authorised User, then without prejudice to the Supplier's other rights, the Customer shall promptly disable such passwords and the Supplier shall not issue any new passwords to any such individual.
- (h) Unlimited Viewer links are not to be shared with the general public

2.3 The Customer shall not access, store, distribute or transmit any Viruses, or any material during the course of its use of the Services that is unlawful or causes damage or injury.

The Supplier reserves the right, without liability or prejudice to its other rights to the Customer, to disable the Customer's access to any material that breaches the provisions of this clause.

2.4 The Customer shall not:

- (a) except as may be allowed by any applicable law which is incapable of exclusion by agreement between the parties and except to the extent expressly permitted under this Agreement:
 - (i) attempt to copy, modify, duplicate, create derivative works from, frame, mirror, republish, download, display, transmit, or distribute all or any portion of the Services in any form or media or by any means; or

- (ii) attempt to de-compile, reverse compile, disassemble, reverse engineer or otherwise reduce to human-perceivable form all or any part of the Services; or
 - (b) access all or any part of the Services in order to build a product or service which competes with the Services; or
 - (c) license, sell, rent, lease, transfer, assign, distribute, display, disclose, or otherwise commercially exploit, or otherwise make the Services available to any third party except the Authorised Users, or
 - (d) attempt to obtain, or assist third parties in obtaining, access to the Services, other than as provided under this clause
- 2.5 The Customer shall use all reasonable endeavours to prevent any unauthorised access to, or use of, the Services and, in the event of any such unauthorised access or use, promptly notify the Supplier.
- 2.6 The rights provided under this clause are granted to the Customer only and shall not be considered granted to any subsidiary or holding company of the Customer.
- 2.7 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to mean, by inference or otherwise, that the Customer has any right to obtain source code for the Software comprised within the Services.
- 2.8 The Supplier reserves the right to electronically monitor the Customer's use of the Services.
- 2.9 The Supplier may suspend access to the Services, or portion thereof, at any time, if in the Supplier's sole reasonable discretion, the integrity or security of the Services is in danger of being compromised by acts of the Customer or Authorised Users. The Supplier shall give the Customer 24 hours written notice, before suspending access to the Services, giving specific details of its reasons.
- 2.10 The Customer is solely responsible for the planning and execution of their event.
- 2.11 The Customer is responsible for obtaining permission for the copyright of any Icons or data they import into The Suppliers software.

3. Provision of the Services

- 3.1 The Customer engages the Supplier, and the Supplier shall from the Effective Date provide the Services to the Customer on and subject to the terms of this Agreement for the Term.
- 3.2 The Supplier shall use commercially reasonable endeavours to make the Services available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, except for:

- (a) planned maintenance carried out during the maintenance window of 20:00 pm to 6.00 am UK time;

- (a) for death or personal injury caused by the Supplier's negligence; or
- (b) for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or
- (c) for anything for which the Supplier cannot lawfully exclude or limit its liability.

12.3 Subject to clause 12.1 and clause 12.2:

- (a) the Supplier shall not be liable whether in tort (including for negligence or breach of statutory duty), contract, misrepresentation, restitution or otherwise for any Consequential Loss however arising under this Agreement, even if the party was advised of the possibility of such damages; and
- (b) the Supplier's total aggregate liability in contract (including all indemnities), tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty), misrepresentation, restitution or otherwise, arising in connection with the performance or contemplated performance of this Agreement shall be limited to the total Fees paid during the 12 months immediately preceding the date on which the claim arose. If the duration of the Agreement has been less than 12 months, such shorter period shall apply.

12.4 The Customer shall be liable for any breaches of this Agreement caused by the acts, omissions or negligence of any Authorised Users who access the Services as if such acts, omissions or negligence had been committed by the Customer itself.

13. Term and termination

- 13.1 This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date.
- 13.2 Where a Trial Period has been agreed, the Agreement shall automatically continue at the end of the Trial Period for the Subscription Term, unless the Customer terminates the Agreement upon giving written notice to the Supplier prior to the expiry of the Trial Period.
- 13.3 Where no Trial Period is agreed the Agreement shall continue for the Subscription Term.
- 13.4 On the expiry of the Subscription Term, this Agreement shall automatically renew for successive Renewal Terms and continue until either party terminates the Agreement by giving the other at least 30 days' notice in writing prior to the start of a Renewal Term. Neither party may terminate the Agreement without cause during the Subscription Term.
- 13.5 Without affecting any other right or remedy available to it, either party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other party if:
- (a) the other party fails to pay any amount due under this Agreement on the due date for payment and remains in default not less than 7 days after being notified in writing to make such payment;
 - (b) the other party commits a material breach of any other term of this Agreement which breach is irremediable or (if such breach is remediable) fails to remedy that breach within a period of 30 days after being notified in writing to do so;
 - (c) the other party repeatedly breaches any of the terms of this Agreement in such a manner as to reasonably justify the opinion that its conduct is inconsistent with it having the intention or ability to give effect to the terms of this Agreement;
 - (d) the other party suspends, or threatens to suspend, payment of its debts or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or admits inability to pay its debts or is deemed unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986;
 - (e) the other party commences negotiations with all or any class of its creditors with a view to rescheduling any of its debts, or makes a proposal for or enters into any compromise or arrangement with its creditors other than for the sole purpose of a scheme for a solvent amalgamation of that other party with one or more other companies or the solvent reconstruction of that other party;
 - (f) a petition is filed, a notice is given, a resolution is passed, or an order is made, for or in connection with the winding up of that other party other than for the sole purpose of a scheme for a solvent amalgamation of that other party with one or more other companies or the solvent reconstruction of that other party;

- (g) an application is made to court, or an order is made, for the appointment of an administrator, or if a notice of intention to appoint an administrator is given or if an administrator is appointed, over the other party;
- (h) the holder of a qualifying floating charge over the assets of that other party has become entitled to appoint or has appointed an administrative receiver;
- (i) a person becomes entitled to appoint a receiver over the assets of the other party or a receiver is appointed over the assets of the other party;
- (j) a creditor or encumbrancer of the other party attaches or takes possession of, or a distress, execution, sequestration or other such process is levied or enforced on or sued against, the whole or any part of the other party's assets and such attachment or process is not discharged within 14 days;
- (k) any event occurs, or proceeding is taken, with respect to the other party in any jurisdiction to which it is subject that has an effect equivalent or similar to any of the events mentioned in clause 13.5(d) to clause 13.5(j) (inclusive); or
- (l) the other party suspends or ceases, or threatens to suspend or cease, carrying on all or a substantial part of its business; or
- (m) a Force Majeure event lasts more than 28 days.

13.6 On termination of this Agreement for any reason:

- (a) all licences granted under this Agreement shall immediately terminate and the Customer shall immediately cease all use of the Services;
- (b) each party shall return and make no further use of any equipment, property, and other items (and all copies of them) belonging to the other party;
- (c) the Supplier shall at the choice of the Customer, upon receipt of a written request received within 30 days of the date of termination, delete or return Customer Data stored in the Supplier's database in a common machine-readable format, free of charge. If the Customer requires any Customer Data to be returned in a different format the Supplier reserves the right to charge for this additional service on a Time and Materials Basis; and
- (d) any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities of the parties that have accrued up to the date of termination, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the agreement which existed at or before the date of termination shall not be affected or prejudiced.

14. Force Majeure

- 14.1 Except with respect to the Customer's obligation to pay the Fees, if a party is wholly or partially unable to comply with its obligations under this Agreement due to Force Majeure, then that party's obligation to perform in accordance with this Agreement will be suspended for the duration of the Force Majeure. As soon as practicable after an event of Force Majeure arises, the party affected by Force Majeure must notify the other party of the extent to which the notifying party is unable to perform its obligations under the Agreement.

15. Conflict

15.1 If there is an inconsistency between any of the terms of this Agreement, the Proposal shall prevail followed by the Terms and Conditions, the SLA, the DPA and then the Privacy Policy.

16. Variation

16.1 Amendments to this Agreement, shall be made in writing and signed by the parties. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, the Supplier may change or modify the terms of this Agreement in order to comply with a change in applicable law, upon giving the Customer 30 days' notice via email. All changes shall be deemed to have been accepted by the Customer unless the Customer terminates the Agreement prior to the expiry of the 30-day period.

17. Waiver

17.1 No failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under this Agreement or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

18. Rights and remedies

18.1 Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the rights and remedies provided under this Agreement are in addition to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies provided by law.

19. Severance

19.1 If any provision (or part of a provision) of this Agreement is found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, unenforceable or illegal, the other provisions shall remain in force.

19.2 If any invalid, unenforceable or illegal provision would be valid, enforceable or legal if some part of it were deleted, the provision shall apply with whatever modification is necessary to give effect to the commercial intention of the parties.

20. Entire agreement

- 20.1 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes and extinguishes all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter.
- 20.2 Each party acknowledges that in entering into this Agreement it does not rely on, and shall have no remedies in respect of, any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in this Agreement.
- 20.3 Each party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation based on any statement in this Agreement.

21. Assignment

- 21.1 The Customer shall not, without the prior written consent of the Supplier, assign, transfer, charge, sub-contract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement.
- 21.2 The Supplier may at any time assign, transfer, charge, sub-contract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement.

22. No partnership or agency

- 22.1 Nothing in this Agreement is intended to or shall operate to create a partnership between the parties, or authorise either party to act as agent for the other, and neither party shall have the authority to act in the name or on behalf of or otherwise to bind the other in any way (including, but not limited to, the making of any representation or warranty, the assumption of any obligation or liability and the exercise of any right or power).
- 22.2 Neither party shall make any public statement, press release or other announcement relating to the terms or existence of this Agreement, or the business relationship of the parties, without the prior written consent of the other party. Notwithstanding the aforesaid the Supplier may use the Customer's name and trademarks (logo only) to list the Customer as a client of the Supplier on its website and in other marketing materials and information, provided that the Customer is a paying Customer of the Supplier.

23. Third party rights

- 23.1 This Agreement does not confer any rights on any person or party (other than the parties to this Agreement and, where applicable, their successors and permitted assigns) pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

24. Notices

- 24.1 Any notice required to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or sent by pre-paid first-class post or recorded delivery post to the other party at its address set out in this Agreement, or such other address as may have been notified by that party for such purposes or sent by email to the other party's email address used for invoicing purposes.
- 24.2 A notice delivered by hand shall be deemed to have been received when delivered (or if delivery is not in business hours, at 9 am on the first business day following delivery). A correctly addressed notice sent by pre-paid first-class post or recorded delivery post shall be deemed to have been received at the time at which it would have been delivered in the normal course of post. A notice sent by email shall be deemed to have been received at the time of transmission.

25. Governing law

- 25.1 This Agreement and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

26. Jurisdiction

- 26.1 Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).
